State Superintendent of Education Visits Town—Personal and Local Happenings.

(Mrs. C. F. Cutting, correspondent.)
Hon. Mason S. Stone, commissioner of education, gave a very interesting talk at the town hall Friday evening, October 15. His subject was "The Junior High School." Hon. Frank H. Brooks of St. Johnsbury, a member of the state board of education, also gave a talk upon educational condition in Vermont. After the addresses little Grace Hall gave a recitation. Among those from out of town were Mrs. Frank H. Brooks, Superintendent of St. Johnsbury, H. Young of St. Johnsbury. In the afternoon Mr. Stone inspected the school buildings in East Concord, Miles Pond and the Judevine Memorial school in this village.

Remember the "poverty ball" under the auspices of Concord Grange, No. 408, Wednesday evening, October 27.

The M. E. Church has been much improved by new memorial windows. The L. B. society received $25 from their chicken pie supper.

The ladies of the M. E. church will hold their annual sale November 10. Mrs. J. K. Bonnett was in Walden last week Sunday and her grand daughter, Doris Fuller, returned with her for a two weeks' visit.

Herbert Dodge has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hodge.

ST. JOHNSBURY CENTER

Death of Bessie Joyce Flewellyn—A Small Fire.

The announcement of the death of Bessie Joyce Flewellyn at her home in Boston, October 10, sounded a note of sadness in the hearts of her many relatives and friends. She was the eldest daughter of Eugene and Cora Stark Joyce, and was born June 5, 1883, at the ancestral Stark home, being fifth in direct line descent of Robert Stark, one of the pioneer settlers of this town. Mar. 9, 1911, she married Robert Flewellyn of Boston and as a devoted wife and mother, recognized the fulfillment of her highest ideals. Besides her husband and little son, she leaves her parents and an only sister, Mrs. Blanche Bellows, of Bellows Falls. Her unselfish devotion for those whom she loved, will ever be held in precious memory. The funeral services were conducted at the house of her parents by Rev. C. L. Eaton, and the profusion of flowers was a silent tribute of the esteem in which she was held. Burial was in the family lot. Those called from out of town to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Ned Fellows of Bellows Falls, Alva Joyce of Dudson, P. Q., and Mrs. Newman of Dudson, P. Q.

Fire broke out last Saturday afternoon in the upstairs tenement in S. K. Huse's house. Fortunately there were a good many of the local firemen at home to attend the auction at Mrs. John LeBourveau's, and they got busy with the hand chemicals and soon had the fire under control. Quite a bit of damage was done to the roof and partitions in the ell part of the house.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Joyce have rented a tenement at West Burke and will move there soon.

While Darrell Howard was cutting corn at Mr. Brill's last Saturday he started to pull some of the
